WASHINGTON SITUATION IS STILL UNSELED

"Lily Whites," Mostly Made Up Of Outlawed Democrats, Are Trying To Show The "Powers That Be" Where The Colored Americans Should Be Politically Educated. The Re-organization Is Imminent But Indications Are, The Axe Will Fall On Narrow Minded Political Chieftains And Not The Negroes.

The Associated Negro Press, Washington, D. C., July 7.—"Stop thief! Stop thief!" may well be the slogan of the day, so far as political progress and action are concerned.

There is an element in the country for the present most active in the Republican Party, that is endeavoring to avoid everything in sight. Their policy and grand strategy are not confined to the colored Americans, but now reach as high as the "steep path" to the "lily white."

This element, which goes under the general cognomen of "lily white," is very aggressive now. It is mostly made up of outlawed Democrats, and is seeking to show the "steep path" to the "lily white," where the colored Americans should be politically educated.

They are reckoning without their hosts, "house-servants," as Ben Williams might say. Colored Americans, in the face of big odds, are exhibiting a degree of firmness all that is even commensurate with respect of their enemies.

Democratic Senators and members of Congress have informed The Associated Negro Press representative that they think the time is not far distant when larger numbers of colored people will vote in the South.

There is this nation as great has been the "bulldog" of reaction against the meeting of the Republican National Committee whose representation in conventions was cut in the South that a new "line of hope" has gone out. It is this way, "The Republicans are not going to desert Colored Americans—don't think so. That cutting down is but a foretaste of cutting down representation in Congress."

That sounds pleasant with possibilities. It is plausible enough to make itself concerned as it may take notice. Especially is this true with the growing feeling of Congressmen Tinkham of Massachusetts to "show up the country" on the subject of disfranchisement.

The official case has fallen. It has fallen hard and with a definite aim on the political necks of Democrats and backfired Republicans, so hard has the fall been that there is "weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Narrow minded political chieftains, near and distant, hundreds of lines and lesser lights, have seen their own's ghost walked in the night. They have been slipping from the public milk bottle for eight years, and they have had a recognized time.

They have played off the little and big jokes that they and their state's attorney could "take" in the colored Americans. They did their worst, and now it is the end of a period day.

Linney Denies He Was Author Of Circular Favoring Disfranchisement Of Colored Americans

Frank A. Linney of North Carolina who was opposed by colored citizens of that state on the ground of certain campaign documents sent out in the 1920 election, has denied the authorship of the specific circular mentioned, and declared that he is not for disfranchising colored citizens.

The hearing on the Linney case took place before a sub-committee of the Judiciary Committee of the United States Senate. The members of the committee were Senators Brand, of Kentucky, chairman; Senator Cunning, of Iowa and Senator Overman, of North Carolina.

More than two hundred white and colored citizens from North Carolina and other states had gathered for the hearing. Senator Brand informed The Associated Negro Press that, with the exception of the rule of the Senate made it necessary for the session to be secret. However, a committee of five, representing the editors of North Carolina, with Dr. Suggs, President of Livingston College as chairman, together with attorneys, were permitted to remain at the hearing.

The North Carolina citizens selected as their attorneys, Dr. Suggs, Dr. Johnson of Atlanta, Georgia, and Mr. William C. Matthews of Boston.

General Charles G. Taylor, of Chicago, who was selected by President Harding to be the next highest under way, and to be the official spokesman, has testified a man and a wicked one.

It has been stated by those in authority, and given to The Associated Negro Press representative for information to the people, that there is going to be a new deal, and one that is startling with party organization, the word comes from the Republican National Committee that they who think they are going to carry on party organization or "lily white" colored Americans, have another thought coming.

This expression was backed up recently by a telegram from the new national chairman, Mr. Adams, to members of a so-called "lily white" political organization in Atlanta, Georgia.

In substance the telegram stated that the headquarters meeting held in Kinship House Atlanta where colored people are in no way, nay, invited to go except as servants, was very much in disfavor with the Committee, as well as others in power.

That word "lily white" on the hearts of the militants, and they have been since seeking to obtain recognition from John Adams seems to be proceeding along the line of "come down or stay away."

A Strange Situation

There is a strange situation existing in political circles. There is more action in the line than there is in some political. The activity is for the most part nearly as much as for the chance to have citizenship rights. In this matter of a "lily white" in the battle of life, there is only one idea left.

WHEAT HARVESTERS ARE MOVING NORTH

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 6.—Millions of the labor army moving northward in the face of the wheat harvest, is beginning here. Through this movement are being multiplied by the Federal employment department of Agriculture, working in co-operation with state, free employment bureaus, thousands of men are sent every year to the localities where they are needed most and where there already is abundant labor.

The demand again in harvest about June 15, and in this, supply and demand have been in normal level and have offset each other fairly well.

From Fort Worth, Texas, and Little Rock, Ark., the Federal employment bureau maintains temporary "field offices" have come reports of great crop surplus here.

These men are now being directed in Oklahoma, where wheat harvest is under way, and a natural exodus consisting of 20,000 men in their beautiful Park for the purpose of clearing the land.

The founders of Washington Park in response to the urgent and repeated appeal from many sources have decided a natural exodus consisting of 20,000 men in their beautiful Park for the purpose of clearing the land.

The grove will be fitted up with seating and amusement devices, facilities and with benches, tables, stands and toilet accommodations. There will be no charge for its use. It will be open place for family parties. Quite a number of events are already scheduled and those desiring to use the grove are requested to make their arrangements without delay through the office of the Cemetery Association, Room 304, 406 Chestnut street, N. E., 4255, Central 1195.

There are 75 acres included in Washington Park and the grove which is in the northern part of the Park will in no wise conflict with the portion used for burial purposes. Committees are invited to come out anytime to inspect the grove.

Hereabouts it is regarded that Gov. Hardrick may as well call Gov. Dorr's style. Buyers have usually waste spots of June deliveries. Manufacturers would usually not consider orders that could not be filled from stock on hand.

GIANTS MAKE STARS FALL IN DETROIT

St. Louis Baseball Machine Takes Four Out Of Five From League Leaders. First Series Beating The City Of Straits Has Had This Season.

The Post-Vision Comet failed to perform on June 23 with the display of shooting stars that the St. Louis Giants made the Stars fall in Detroit, giving an exhibition that the City of Straits will keep memories. When the famous boys from the city of presidents' mouths recited the appropriate center of the ball, the much talked of stars therein had not been humiliated to the tune of two defeats in succession, but our champions performed this operation four times, once a day beginning last Saturday. Until Wednesday did the wickets let up. When they pulled out for more action, they had composed four out of five and the Stars were draped in mourning. Finney got a 1-0 victory on Saturday. Draining Detroit from on Sunday 7-0. On the fourth, Oakland and Kennan won over the great national and victory 11-0. This day it took Finney, Finney and Drake eleven innings to beat Place and Drake 11-0. On the fifth, the Stars won the game with a home run in the eleventh. Finney (left) tried to make a "straight" volunteer, but Detroit's Finney won 7-0, while Cooper and Force pitching. The Stars' box score reports of games Saturday and Sunday.

DETROIT, July 5.—(Inquirer) On the right day gave to St. Louis a 9 to 4 edge over the Detroit Stars in the first game of the series played at Mack park Saturday afternoon. Finney started for Detroit and batted three times.
